Re: Intercast Europe S.r.l. v. Kenko Tokina USA, Inc. (formerly T H K Photo Products, Inc.) – Opposition No. 91/210,772 (Our Ref: C13650025)

Dear Ms. English:

By Order dated July 24, 2014, Interlocutory Attorney Christen M. English granted Opposer's June 3, 2014 Consented Motion to Suspend proceedings so that the parties could pursue settlement.

Proceedings were set to resume on September 3, 2014, however, Applicant filed a Consented Motion for a further suspension of proceedings on August 25, 2014, since Settlement seems imminent and the parties are finalizing the written Settlement Agreement.

Accordingly, Opposer requests that the Board defer issuing any decisions on the other outstanding motions and grant the further suspension.

Lastly, the July 24, 2014 Order set proceedings to resume on September 3, 2014 and required that the parties conference with you within 14 days from the resumption of the proceedings. Since the Board has yet to act on the most recent Consented Motion to Suspend to date, Opposer requests that such conference be rescheduled as well.

Applicant's counsel, Jeffrey Wexler, Esq., consents to the within request.

Respectfully submitted,

Ralph H. Cathcart
Attorney for Opposer
